

Retirement Living

A warm, welcoming community
in the heart of Newcastle

With more than 30 years' experience we know it's not just the buildings that make a community, but the people who care for, and support one other. At Jenny MacLeod, we've created a unique village atmosphere where everyone feels welcome and part of a supportive and inclusive community.

The village is within walking distance of the popular Jesmond Shopping Centre or there are regular bus services there as well as Newcastle City and recreational facilities.

Whether you are looking for an independent living villa or a fully serviced unit, Jenny MacLeod has a range of living options to suit your needs.

Choose from a range of living options and enjoy a relaxed lifestyle.

Jenny MacLeod Retirement Village offers a relaxed, friendly environment set on seven acres of cottage gardens and within easy access to more than 30 acres of natural bushland.

Enjoy the convenience of living in the centre of everything and embrace an active and vibrant lifestyle in a welcoming community where residents truly look out for each other.

Independent Living Villas

Surrounded by established gardens, our delightful independent living villas provide the perfect answer to low-maintenance, independent living.

"We are so lucky to be right in town close to the shopping centre, and the hospital and yet have these lovely parks and walking trails around us."

Elaine, village resident

Independent Living Villas

Our independent living villas feature comfortable open plan living, generous sized bedrooms, and separate internal laundry. Many villas have extra space with enclosed sunrooms, private gardens, a lockable garage, or onsite parking.

- On Call Care and visiting medical professionals, hospitals and local pharmacy

Facilities and activities

There is a wide range of activities, and residents can participate in community life and organised activities as much or as little as they like.

"I've even been able to take up a new hobby of painting which is something I could never find time for in the past."

Ray, village resident

Facilities and activities

With an active committee there is always something to do at Jenny MacLeod. Residents coordinate a range of activities such as bingo, music, arts and crafts, exercise and games groups. There are also frequent outings in the village bus and everyone is encouraged to participate as much or as little as they choose.

The community hall is the heart of the village, serving as a second home for many residents to socialise and catch up with friends. Monthly events featuring a variety of performers keep everyone entertained, making the hall's activities a highlight throughout the year.

Social hub features:

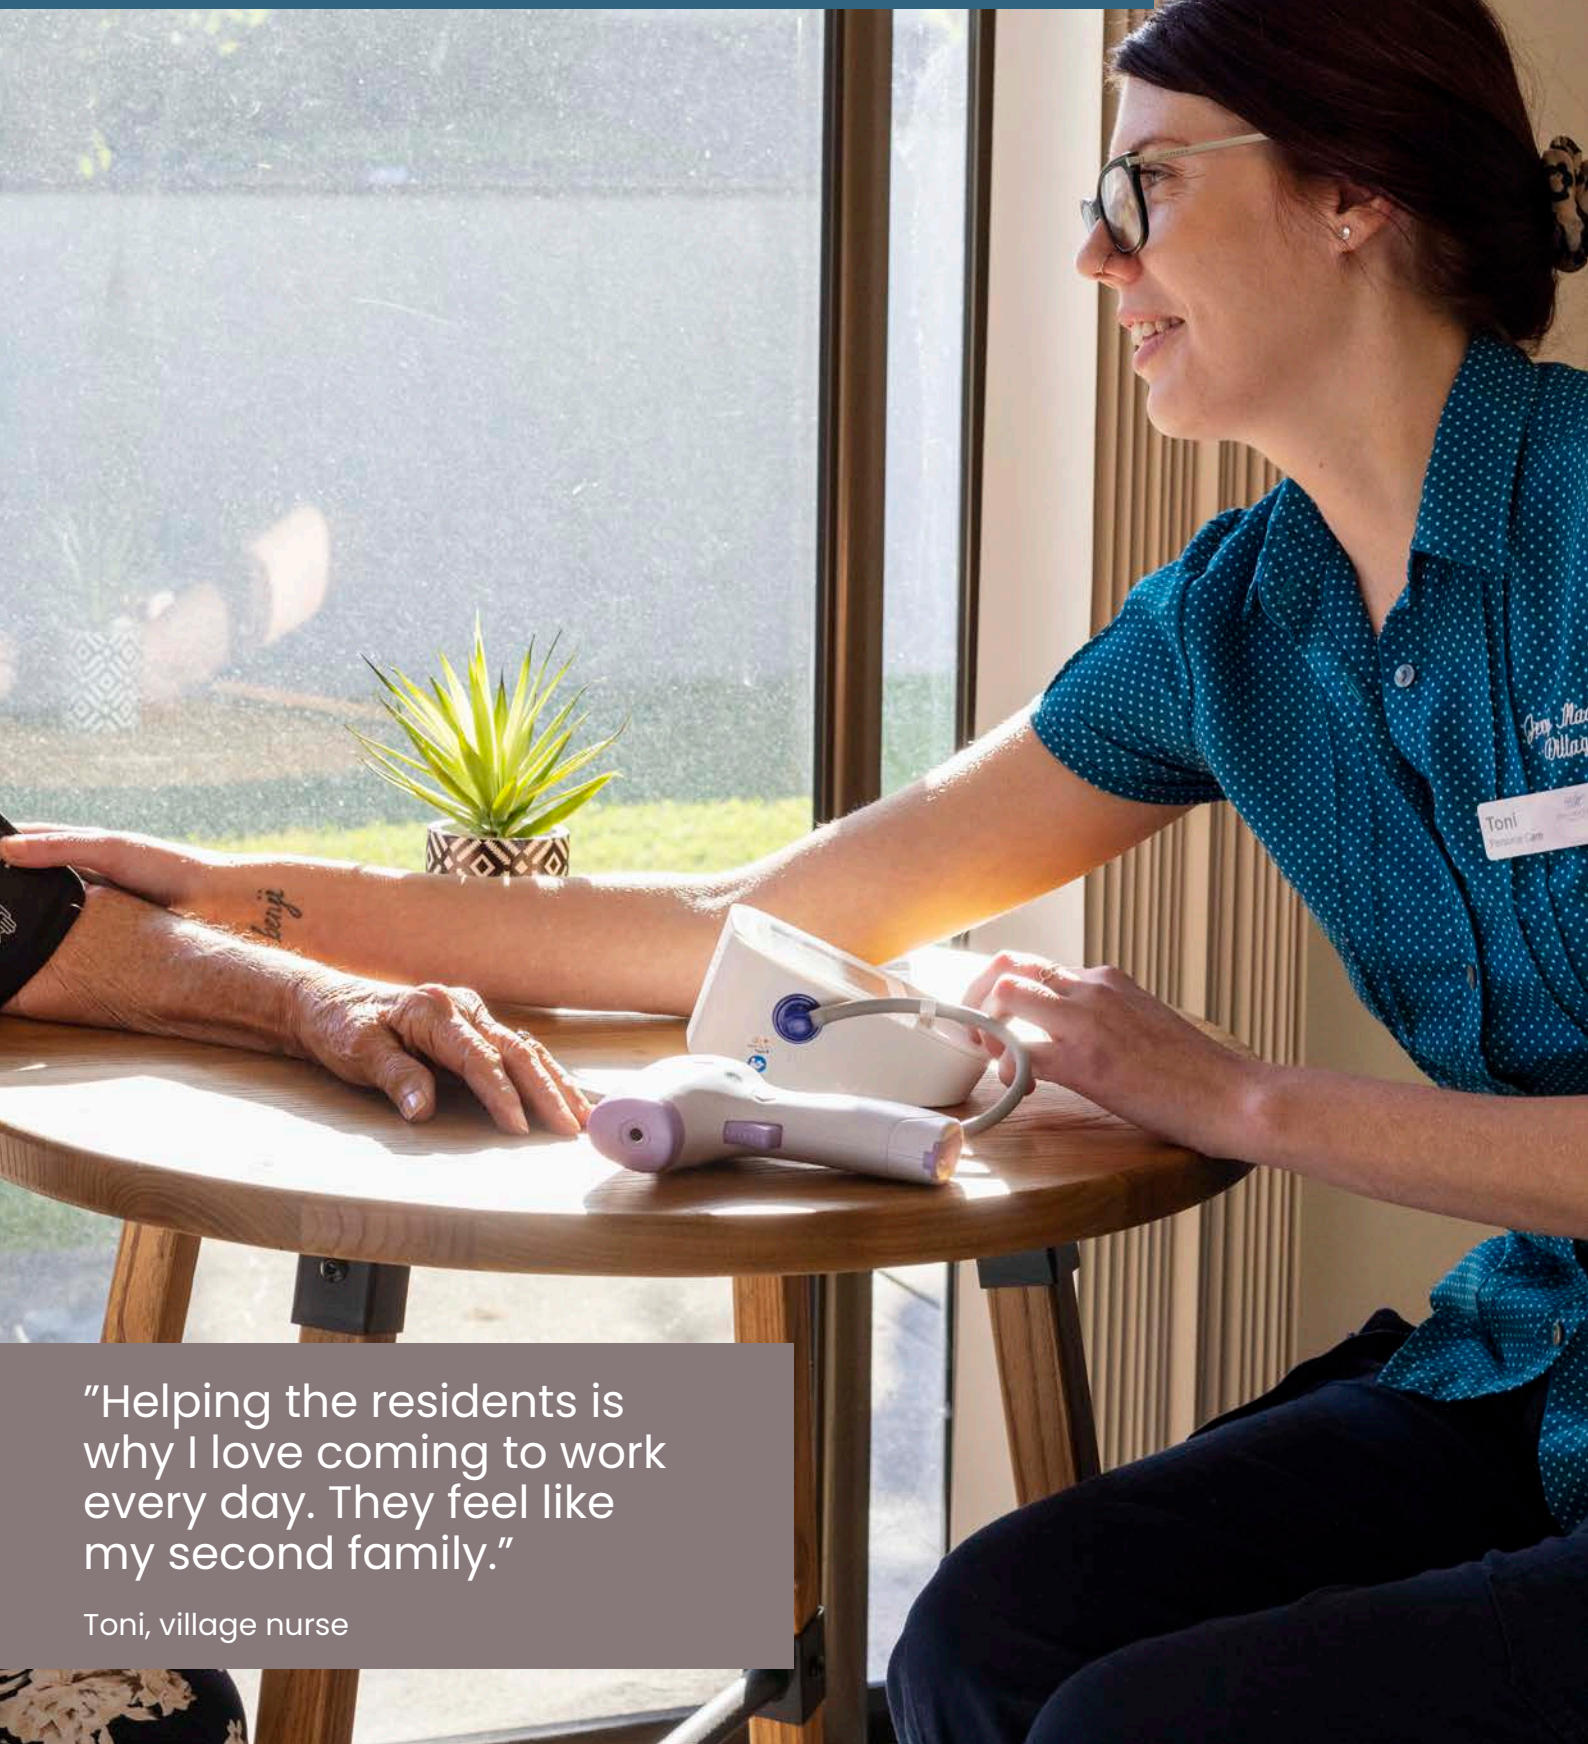

- Bar and lounge area
- Large screen for movie nights
- Resident library and reading area

Guest accommodation

Wondering if a serviced apartment unit is for you? Why not enjoy a short stay and experience all that village life has to offer. We also offer guest accommodation for visiting family and friends of residents. All stays require approval of the village manager & are subject to availability.

Caring for our residents

We offer tailored care and support on site 24/7 for our residents in both the independent living villas and serviced apartments.

"Helping the residents is why I love coming to work every day. They feel like my second family."

Toni, village nurse
